Coldwell Banker Home Show Bigger and Better

(Hamilton, Bermuda – 13th February 2010) The COLDWELL BANKER HOME SHOW celebrates its eighth annual trade show event tomorrow, Saturday, 13th February 2010. – CedarBridge Academy. Formerly held at No.1 Shed, the event is a trade exhibition designed to showcase local business services and provide the public with a “one-stop-shopping” experience for goods and services related to home ownership.

“2010 is going to be a phenomenal year for the Home Show” says Susan Thompson, Home Show Co-ordinator and Agency Manager at Coldwell Banker Bermuda Realty. “We are proud to host 70 different service providers in a format that is bigger and better than ever.”

CedarBridge Academy is perfectly suited for this type of event, with booths starting at 6’x10’ and expanding to fill whole classrooms within the facility. The gymnasium and cafeteria have also been incorporated in the 2010 event to accommodate an increase in local vendors. There will be scheduled performances by the CedarBridge Cheerleading Squad throughout the day, a Kiddy Korner with bouncy castle, and a Food Court for those who want to make a family outing out of it!

The goal at Coldwell Banker Bermuda Realty, which offers services in residential and commercial sales and rentals, property management, appraisals, land surveying, international referrals, auctioneering and vacation services, is to offer an event that is both entertaining and informative. The Coldwell Banker Home Show is sure to have something to meet everyone’s needs, including some fantastic raffle prizes donated by Exhibitors (to be drawn at the closing of the show from the registration box).

Everyone is welcome at CedarBridge Academy between 9:30am and 4:30pm on Saturday, 13th February 2010. Join Bermuda’s largest local real estate company for a great event. Admission is free!
